

Miller Family Rules

1. We are responsible for our own behavior.

We will listen to our parents and follow the rules. If we make a mistake and get in trouble, we will accept the consequences.

2. We will be polite and respectful.

We will use our manners when we ask for things or when we need help. We will not throw a fit, scream, whine, or complain. We will apologize if we hurt someone's feelings or cause an accident. We will respect each other's thoughts and opinions.

3. Everyone helps each other.

We will help each other whenever we can. If Mommy or Daddy asks us to clean up the toys, we will help, even if we didn't play with them.

4. We will keep ourselves and our house clean.

We will wash our hands before we eat. We will eat and drink at the table. We will use the bathroom properly. We will take baths and showers on a regular basis.

5. We will behave in school and do our Homework before we can play PlayStation at home.

We will behave ourselves in class and get good marks. We will finish our Homework or chores before we're allowed to play PlayStation.

6. We will not wrestle each other.

We will not wrestle, tackle, hit, push or other wise intentionally hurt one another physically. (This includes Kleo, the kitty, too.)
